

Suchismita Ghoshal

Flamboyance of Life

The long, luscious waves
Coming back and forth
Pushing the fragrance
Of a rejuvenating today.
Oblivious to the onlookers,
Ethereal charm to the lovers,
The waves tangle with each other
To throw a beguiling promise,

To whisper the words of universe,
To tell us to pause and inhale the essence
And the clairvoyance of their closure
Takes every single soul
To the world of perpetual supremacy.
White charm escaped from
The piquant source of mass of water
Picturizes the flamboyance of life.
