

Beauty Engraved in Black

Seema Gupta

A divine artistic creation appeared like an incredible soul with stars piercing under my skin where my black is a warrior , a fighter and survivor in a victorious modus, nothing worldly demarcates my victory over complexion , race based discrimination universe bestowed me a majestic throne of indelible infinite and innocence where I am loud to announce "That" my soulful brown dazzling eyes and shimmering curvy lips captivates me more to my own self And I have been told that black wear emotions miraculously , With confidence and flammable style, I grace an adventurous mind My fame and envy dance with exquisite melodies in rhythms oh!!! M flawlessM flawless...

My black radiates with the smile of bright sun , and unveils my luster and dew drops at the same time
And I have been told that I am rising wrapped in black , like a crystal chandelier and disseminate myself with ardency with confidence and perfection Where.....
" Black is the Beauty.. and Beauty lies in Black"
