

Shubha Pai, Raga Lahari, Pallavi Sharma

Blank

A homo sapien from a faraway land
Strands like the Amazon
The warmth of flushed cheeks
Twinkling bodies spread across the vast night sky

Had seen many skies
A bold reaction to the wrong imprisonment
Tightening of pants
Slithering like a snake

It's movement helps me talk and makes you scream
Tasted like the freshly opened bottle of Old Monk

Your absence feels like stapling of my flesh
You were the home for this wandering soul

A joker's grin for life

Worshipping the guillotined head

An often questioned omnipresent figure

A chain reaction on the Ghat road

Tuber that makes the modern day Seetama cross the Rekha

Wailing, screaming, scratching, biting

Mirror or lover's photo in the hand of a living soul.
