Books, not of paper

Read, before you can no longer hold them warm from cover to cover.

For they are coming, weapons unsheathed.

On they march!

Gruff slogans in all the fury of a riled up mob reverberating through their rank and file.

On they march!

The blazing flames of their torches primed to pounce and swallow each of them pages whole.

On they march!

Read, for the ides of March is upon us!

Ingrain each word of a free man in your dreams anew, let your thoughts bleed them boldly whence the tongue can no longer fathom to speak or endure.

Read! for perhaps they can't burn the books that were never made of paper.
