Asuri Vaishnavi

The Mirror's Favour

On the flipside of ethereal posterity
Lies a reflection of yesteryears
Obscured by the moments we met
Like an eclipsed art piece- muted, lustreless
As the clock ticks, I chant, count
Chasing you like dreams before daylight
Hitched breath, panting, running on the edge, not Circles- Ferris wheels, yet again, heart in throat

Now let us walk, a while before we glide
Slide against the same speculum, counterpart
Alas, behold balance- winner of our race
If stand by me you cannot, divided
Take the front-side, face me, united
And if they ask who's the fairest of all
Let us stare through the glass and call it
The mirror's favour, spectator's service.
